Date: 16/06 / 2026

To,

Mrs. Karra Hymavathi @ Billa Hymavathi,
W/o. Kondal Reddy, 35-7-332, Jawahar Colony,
Thirumala Colony, Gopalpur, Hanamkonda,
Telangana – 506370.
Cell.No. 7382852527.

Subject: Legal Notice to cease and desist from illegal acts of harassment, criminal trespass, criminal intimidation, extortion, to return forcibly obtained signed blank bond papers.

Madam,

Under the instructions and on behalf of my client, Smt. Vadluri Ramadevi, W/o. Sri Vadluri Satyanarayana, residing at 1-57/232/A, Sriram Nagar, Kondapur, Serilingampally, Hyderabad – 500084, I hereby issue this legal notice calling upon you to immediately desist from your illegal acts of harassment, criminal intimidation, unlawful interference, and false monetary claims against my client.

1. My client submits that during the year 2022, she entered into certain private financial/chit transactions with you, under which she received an amount of approximately Rs. 15,00,000/- (Rupees Fifteen Lakhs only). Thereafter, my client regularly repaid the entire amount together with interest from time to time. According to the accounts maintained by my client, she has paid you an aggregate amount of nearly Rs. 30,00,000/- (Rupees Thirty Lakhs only), which includes online transfers aggregating approximately Rs. 25,00,000/- and cash payments of approximately Rs. 5,00,000/-, apart from other payments made during the course of the transaction. Despite receiving amounts substantially exceeding the principal amount advanced by you, you have unlawfully demanded further amounts without any legal or factual basis.

2. My client further states that after receiving the aforesaid amounts, you have been repeatedly visiting her residence without permission, creating a nuisance, threatening my client and her family members with dire consequences, openly proclaiming that you would "see their end", and attempting to terrorize them into paying amounts which are not legally due. Such acts have caused immense mental agony, fear, and humiliation to my client and her family.
3. Specifically, my client states that in the month of March 2026, you escalated your illegal actions by committing outright criminal acts. You, along with certain unnamed henchmen and anti-social elements, committed criminal trespass by illegally and forcibly entering the residence of my client. During this unlawful intrusion, you and your henchmen created a terrifying atmosphere, physically and psychologically intimidated my client, and forcefully obtained her signatures on empty/blank bond papers under severe coercion and threat to her life and safety.
4. My client categorically states that any such signatures on empty bond papers, writings, or documents obtained by you under coercion, undue influence, or criminal intimidation are void ab initio, unenforceable, and have no legal sanctity whatsoever. My client strongly apprehends that you intend to misuse these blank bond papers by fabricating false claims, forged agreements, or promissory notes against her.

5. It is strictly placed on record that your acts of unlawfully entering her residence with henchmen, intimidating her family members, and forcefully obtaining signatures to extort money amount to grave offences. Your actions constitute criminal trespass, wrongful restraint, criminal intimidation, extortion, and forgery-related offences punishable under the Bharatiya Nyaya Sanhita, 2023, besides giving rise to civil liability for damages.
6. It is made clear that no person has any right to recover alleged dues through threats, coercion, use of muscle power, or unlawful entry into another person's residence. Any genuine claim can only be enforced through due process of law before a competent Court. Your continued illegal conduct clearly demonstrates a malicious intention to unlawfully enrich yourself by making false and excessive monetary demands, despite having already received amounts far exceeding the original financial transaction.
7. Therefore, you are hereby called upon to immediately:
 - I. Cease and desist from harassing my client and her family members in any manner whatsoever;
 - II. Stop making false, illegal, and excessive monetary demands;
 - III. Refrain from trespassing or visiting the residence of my client without lawful authority;
 - IV. Refrain from issuing threats or intimidating my client or her family members either personally, through henchmen/third parties, or by any electronic means;
 - v. Immediately return the blank bond papers forcibly signed by my client in March 2026, along with any other original documents belonging to my client which

- are currently in your illegal possession;
- vi. Confirm in writing within seven (7) days from the date of receipt of this notice that you shall comply with the above demands and not repeat any such unlawful acts in the future.

Take notice that if you fail to comply with the above demands within the stipulated period, my client shall be constrained to initiate appropriate civil and criminal proceedings against you before the competent Courts and law enforcement authorities. This will include lodging formal criminal complaints for criminal trespass, criminal intimidation, extortion, forgery, use of forged documents, cheating, and criminal breach of trust under the Bharatiya Nyaya Sanhita, 2023, besides seeking recovery of damages and compensation for the mental harassment and financial loss caused to my client. In such an event, you alone shall be solely responsible for all costs, risks, and consequences arising therefrom.

This notice is issued without prejudice to all other rights and remedies available to my client under law and equity.

A copy of this notice is retained in my office for future reference.
