SUBJECT: REPLY TO YOUR LEGAL NOTICE DATED 20-07-2026

Sir,

Under the instructions and on behalf of my client, Mohammed Khaja Zameeruddin, S/o MK Basheeruddin, Occupation: Private Employee, R/o Flat No.104, Mount View Apartments, Puppalaguda, Dollar Hills, Gate No.2, Shaikpet, Hyderabad – 500089, Ranga Reddy District, I hereby issue the following reply to your legal notice dated 20-07-2026:

1. At the outset, the allegations, averments, and claims made in your legal notice on behalf of your client, Sri Singireddy Venkateswar Reddy, are categorically denied as being completely false, baseless, and a fabricated counter-blast designed to evade his legal and financial liabilities.
2. In reply to Paragraph 1 of your notice, it is denied that the dealings were ordinary business transactions. The true facts are that your client and his wife approached my client citing an urgent personal need for money. Trusting his word, my client transferred Rs. 10,00,000/- (Rupees Ten Lakhs Only) to your client via an online transfer. Your client, in the presence of his wife and my client's friends, promised to repay the amount within One month. However, your client has dishonestly kept the money and intentionally refused to pay upon the agreed date, evidencing a clear intention to cheat my client from the very beginning.
3. In reply to Paragraph 2 of your notice, the allegations of harassment and creating a public nuisance on 16.07.2026 are vehemently denied. The reality is that my client visited your client's residence with a friend to peacefully seek the return of his funds. After speaking politely to your client's wife from outside the gate, my client waited quietly for approximately 3 hours. It was your client's family who misused the Dial 100 emergency service to intimidate my client. Upon the arrival of the police, my client explained the actual situation, and the police rightfully advised my client to file a formal criminal complaint at the Golconda Police Station.

4. Further, the complaint lodged by your client at L.B. Nagar Police Station on 11.07.2026 is entirely false and filed with malicious intent. My client was informed by the police that your client falsely claimed to have already paid the amount in full. My client possesses a call recording that conclusively proves this to be a lie.
5. In reply to Paragraphs 3 and 4 of your notice, the allegations regarding an incident on 18.07.2026 at Udupi Park involving physical assault, wrongful restraint, abuse, and the display of defamatory placards are denied in toto. To the contrary, it is your client who engaged local goons to act as mediators, threatening my client to completely stop asking for his rightful money. Furthermore, my client is aware that your client regularly breaks the law and currently has several other court cases pending against him.
6. In reply to Paragraph 5 of your notice, your client's narrative is entirely self contradictory. In your notice, your client requests "reasonable time to settle the finance transaction obligations" due to alleged "temporary financial difficulties". This directly exposes the falsehood of his previous police complaint dated 11.07.2026, wherein he claimed to the L.B. Nagar Police that he had already paid the amount in full. This contradiction establishes your client's fraudulent intent and dishonest conduct beyond any doubt.

Because of your client's cheating and severe threats, my client is living in constant fear and facing severe financial hardships, including struggling to pay his children's school fees and service his own loans.

Please be informed that my client has already filed a detailed criminal complaint against your client and his wife at the Golconda Police Station on 22-07-2026 for cheating, criminal intimidation, keeping the money dishonestly, and threatening to file false police complaints.

Therefore, you are hereby advised to instruct your client to immediately withdraw this false and vexatious legal notice and to return the misappropriated sum of Rs. 10,00,000/- to my client forthwith. Failing this, my client will be constrained to vigorously pursue the pending criminal proceedings and initiate further civil and criminal actions against your client at his sole risk as to costs and consequences.

A copy of this reply is retained in my office for future record and reference. Yours faithfully,
